We had another adventure with our Christmas Tree on Monday night. The wind toppled the big tree again. When JR, Rudy, Richie and Bruce showed up to assess the damage, they decided that the big boy's time had come. They sawed it in half stood it up again. The other trees were unharmed and were left in place. It is a shame that the high winds have been wreaking havoc on our beautiful Christmas display, but we'll keep at it until the holiday is over. Thanks, guys.

Our regular Thursday meeting was cancelled again because it fell on New Year's Day. We hope everyone had a safe and enjoyable celebration, and we are looking to get started again on January 8. See you then.
